Subject: Request to Withdraw Invitation to the Islamic Republic's Foreign Minister

Mr. President Suryodipuro,

A massacre is being perpetrated in Iran under pressure of the Islamic Republic, a criminal regime that slaughtered tens of thousands of people in January 2026.

Today, its Minister of Foreign Affairs—who is, in effect, its Minister of Propaganda—has been invited to speak before the Human Rights Council.

Millions of people in Iran have demonstrated that this regime does not represent them. It holds no legitimacy in this country, and therefore no legitimacy to address your Council or to speak in the name of a people it has massacred.

To conceal crimes and shield criminals behind the facade of so-called diplomacy and dialogue is unworthy of your institution.

We respectfully request that you withdraw this invitation and deny the representative of this bloodstained regime access to this forum.

Most Respectfully

Assadollah Nasre-Esfahani (former minister)
